

I am already concerned about the consolidation of so many radio stations under one ownership (Clear Channel), which has resulted in homogenization of radio everywhere, and denied the public what capitalism should provide: competition. Please do not further loosen regulations.